The New Evolution Is Here!

I am Jeannie Alvin, author, psychotherapist, and spiritual guide.

I send Love and blessings to all those reading this today, whose hearts have called them here. Whose souls have called them here. Who are ready for expansion.

This expansion could be something in the world, something in relationships, it could be a time of being a hermit, being in a cocoon of development and growth.

The Creator is so vast, and yet knows each of us by our name, the path of our soul, in every aspect of our life.

I'm excited to share with you that I see a path that's very beautiful for humanity's future. But there's a caveat. There's a fork in the road. Is going to be a better and better life for those who chose it, and the other road goes downhill and will get bumpier and bumpier.

This is already happening and it's going to get more intense in the next several years.

Life for half of humanity will get worse in the coming years!

Let us be in the half that rises above the chaos!

This is a call of the soul!

One by one, many are responding to this call!

My book 'Our Sacred Origins ... We ARE the Children of God' addresses this and helps us rise up on the easier road, the road of higher frequencies and improvement in every part of our life.

80% of humanity is non spiritual, they think they are just a mind and a body, and 200 years ago, it was the reverse. This is problem that I will explain in this chat.

Appx 50% of the population will not evolve in this life. Which means that about 30% of the 80 % i mentioned are going to awaken to their spiritual nature and choose a higher road.!

We are living in a low frequency world, and all of our problems are of that low frequency: problems in housing, in relationships and finances, careers, and health issues., etc.

On a metaphysical level what I see is that humanity is undergoing a battle of dark versus light.

We see this in politics, education and religion. The contrasts are from control, with goals of elimination of humanity, merging of humanity with machine. I personally view this as devolution.

Versus freedom and the expansion of humanity. Expansion of consciousness, expansion in the well-being of our health, of our commerce, of our governments, of our health systems and educational systems. Everything is going to get better for some who choose it.

Specifically, I believe humanity is evolving into a higher state beyond homo sapiens. And the current global challenge we face is a choice between upliftment and expansion or extinction—potentially merging humanity with artificial intelligence.

The negativity we are seeing is like a dirty rug being shaken globally. Sometimes this is to reveal what has been going on for ages, but has been hidden.

This is about our consciousness, this is what determines our level of light, our level of frequency and which reality we tune into. Because on this earth right now there are many realities happening all at once.

Another way to say this is that there are many frequencies of realities happening all at once. LIke the channels on your tv or internet, where you can see programs of tragedies and drama, or programs of happiness and abundance. Each channel is on a different frequency.

So we get to decide on this Earth which reality we wish to tune into. This is from the lowest frequency to the highest frequency.

These frequencies in realities in our world can range from war and famine and people doing harm to one another, to the highest frequencies of joy and abundance. We can see all of this in our world.

The New Evolution is Here Now!

On my youtube/JeannieAlvin short video called 'All is Energy, 'I speak of how everything is energy—including our bodies, thoughts, and emotions.

Did you know that you can call in the highest energy to heal and transform your life? In this video, I share how you can elevate your frequency, your antenna, and align with Divine energy to overcome challenges, enhance well-being, and experience profound healing.

My work guides us to raise our frequency, both in my book 'Our Sacred Origins ... We ARE the Children of God," my videos, and in the weekly classes I'm soon going to be giving.

The processes are not hard, but most people would not know what they are. They are step by step, simple, powerful. This is helpful whether you are already on a spiritual path or not. It would enhance your path if you already are on one.

In the year 2000 I began to be attracted to people who claim to have experienced something beyond the mind, something very beautiful.

I was intrigued. I was fascinated.

A friend and I went to hear them speak about what was beyond the mind.

I could not understand them with my mind, because how could my mind comprehend something that was beyond the mind.?

But something in me felt a call to be in their presence.

Every weekend my friend and I attended meetings where different people would speak of this. They called it Oneness, they called it unity consciousness, they called it Awakening to our true nature, our true self.

What I didn't realize then, but now, I am seeing clearly, is that a new evolution of humanity was beginning.

The dawn was breaking as Homo Sapien began cracking the code of evolution, going to the next iteration of what is possible for a human!

And it began, one by one of us, opening up from within us!

Not understanding this, because my mind, as good as it is, and I've been blessed with a good one, I began yearning for what these people were talking about. I wanted to experience what they talked about.

I decided that I would be around these quote awakened people as much as I could. I would be in the fire of their presence, and just like popcorn pops when it gets hot enough, I would pop when the time is right.

And that happened.! And in about 2001 I went into that Oneness state. I experienced that vastness that's beyond the mind and the joy that accompanies it. My mind was over to the right, about 2 meters over, just talking away! I didn't pay much attention to it, because I was functioning fine, and in great joy!!

Fast forwarding to about 2003, I created games or processes that pulled people into Oneness.

I then wrote books about this, they are on Amazon under my name. They are called 'Awaken to Life! Better than You Ever Dreamed!' And 'Change Games.' And now the process that takes you into Oneness is in my new book 'Our Sacred Origins ... We ARE the Children of God. '

When I finished writing 'Our Sacred Origins,' I was guided to the next phenomena of this evolution.

When pressing in the center of my chest and holding my breath, I felt that vastness that I had felt in that Oneness state that I had been in, in 2001. And I discovered that I could guide people into it.

In just two minutes, four people — from a four-year-old child to a grandmother — shifted from despair to joy. Their faces lit up, their eyes shone with light, and a beautiful joy opened within them as they felt the vastness of who they truly are.

The vastness that they felt is their soul! And their soul is One with God! So in two minutes, they went from despair to experiencing an exquisite union with God and their soul.

Then I guided them to feel behind the center of their chest, and they found something beautiful. They were feeling their true self, that self that was born as a spark of God, as a ball of Light, in the heaven realm.

My book 'Our Sacred Origins ... We ARE the Children of God. ' is a reminder for many people of the journey of their souls, from their pure and innocent beginnings to their explorations of many worlds, many realities. And now, and of our return to that purity and innocence, and the beauties of our true nature.

What took days and weeks , months and years for people to expeerience back in the year 2000, now ordinary people like us are experiencing in two minutes!

We can do this at the end of this article. Also, you can experience part of what I am talking about in my youtube.com/JeannieAlvin “You are invited to an in person book launch” video, and in the youtube video of this article, 'From Despair to Joy in Two Minutes: The New Evolution Is Here '.

The New Evolution is Here Now!

This is so exciting!

This IS the new evolution!

We are at the dawn of a changing humanity!

A changing species!

And it is happening within us, one by one of us!

This is our sacred destiny, and it apparently will happen for about half of humanity in this life, and the others when they are ready.!

My book will accelerate this for those who are drawn to it.

We can overcome many or all of the problems of the low density world we live in. We can raise our frequency, our antennas, above the many bumps that are coming for humanity on the road that we are on, as we transition to this beautiful new reality.

That is what my books, videos and website offer . They offer a powerful path to rise above these problems of low frequency.

For those who are already on a spiritual path, my book will enhance your path. You are in charge of your own life, I am not here to change anyone.

We will now do a short process, the same one with which I guided the children and their grandmother.

The Process

This can be very noticable. You can feel this. Put your hand near your heart, in the center of your chest, Slightly press with your index finger and the next finger. Continue to press.

Take a few deep breaths in and out slowly, counting to 5 on the inhale and exhale.

Now after an inhale, stop breathing, and stay there.

Stay in this, don't analyze.

As you need to breathe again, gently and slowly breathe, and hold your breath again. and stay there.

Stay in this, don't analyze.

You may feel something like relaxation, peace, or see a beautiful light. You may feel a vast, expansive energy. And sometimes people don't feel anything. Don't worry, if you are reading this, you have your foot in the door. We all experience things at our own pace.
